Keeping in view the special features of the case, we are not inclined to interfere. Needless to say, when we have used the words 'special features of the case', the question of law, as decided by the High Court, is kept open.

At this juncture, Mr. Mehta submits that the respondent has already filed a contempt petition before the High Court. As learned Additional Solicitor General would submit that they will implement the order passed by the High Court within a week hence. The contempt petition, pending before the High Court, shall be deemed to have been disposed of.

The special leave petitions are, accordingly, disposed of.
